Paul McClary completes patrol

Coast Guard Seaman Paul A. McClary, son of Ann C. and James E. McClary Jr. of Route 4, Box 35A, Appomattox, Va., recently completed a Law Enforcement Patrol off the East Coast.

He is a crewmember aboard the Coast Guard cutter Reliance, homeported in Yorktown, Va.

During the patrol, the Reliance cruised more than 2,300 miles as part of an officer candidate training program. Crewmembers boarded fishing and pleasure craft from three countries, seized a Spanish stern trawler for violation of the Fisheries Conservation and Management Act-the law which established the 200-mile fishing limit. The vessel was escorted to Newark, N. J., where it was turned over to authorities.

The Reliance is a 210-foot long, medium, endurance cutter with a crew of 61. It is the Coast Guard's only reserve training cutter.

McClary joined the Coast Guard in April 1979. His wife, Doris, is the daughter of Thelma Hughes of Route 1, Box 86, also of Appomattox, Va.
